

Whig & Courier.

JOHN H. LYNDE, - PROPRIETOR
MONDAY, NOV. 29, 1889.

The Seco Democrat, usually fair towards his contemporaries, intimated that the Whig & Courier, while it reproaches the thieves who disgrace the leadership of the Democratic party, conceals the faults of such men as Butterfield and those who prove recent in our own party. Had the editor of The Democrat read The Whig he would have made a different representation. We have not shielded anyone who has cheated the people under the Republican cloak. We do not believe in punishing men who are charged with crime before they have had a fair trial before the public but we do believe that men who are even suspected of crime should not be allowed to hold office of trust under Government; they should be requested to resign, as did Butterfield and those who are known to this rule, as where the N. Y. Sun and some other papers that have been snubbed in their aspirations have abused men who are fairly above respectable suspicion. Public officers have rights which should be respected, and to forfeit which they should be entitled to more than the persecutions of professional blame-mongers. The Whig is always ready to denounce those in our ranks who swindle the public and abuse their trust.

Now, Mr. Democrat, look on the other picture. Do you take to expose the money that crops out in your own party? Have you ever sold such men as Sweeney, and Tweed, and the Woods and your other leaders who have abused power so long? Do you know that the New York World, and not The Whig, is author of that application to the Tammanyites, "for reprobation of the Ring"? Have you exposed to view the nefarious transactions of the Democratic supervisors in Brooklyn? Have you told your readers that nearly all the Democrats in the last N. Y. Legislature voted for every job that was paid for and that Democratic papers and some have further informed them that every Democrat who voted against those jobs was rejected by the Democratic conventions this year? And isn't it in view of all these things, a swindling transaction for Gov. Hoffman to promise an honest Legislature at the end of the year?

The Erie pirates have last been driven to bay. The light has been lit in upthorn, and their capture would seem only a question of time. Proceedings have been instituted against the managers by the President of the Susquehanna railroad, and all at once the reputation of the whole concern seems to be discredited. It is half the charges brought against Fisk, Gould, and two or three others are true, the Erie Railroad has been a gigantic instrument of robbery and corruption ever since those gentlemen seized it. They have heretofore managed to escape all the attacks that have been made upon them, but they have apparently waked up the wrong lion this time. Joseph T. Rensselaer, President of the Albany & Susquehanna Railroad, who has instituted the recent proceedings against them, is said to be an intellectual giant, of an unblemished reputation, a man of his word, with a will indomitable as destiny itself. He charges that one Eldridge and one or two others who were engaged in the Erie Railroad, managed to work into the directorship "a certain Jay Gould, who was formerly engaged in the management of a small railroad called Lake Champlain, and one James Fisk, Jr., from Boston, formerly a dry goods dealer," by whom some legions were finally given the whole management of that great corporation, that since they have held the reins, the directors and stockholders have been strangers to the affairs of the road. Fisk and Gould allowing no reports to be made to enlighten them or the public, that the stock of the company has been valued to such an extent that more than three millions can never be accounted for, in short, that every move they have made has been contrary to honesty, law and the public welfare.

It is quite evident that for the first time Fisk, Gould and Company, who were installed in their present positions because no others dared to outrage public sentiment so boldly, are becoming alarmed. The New York papers of yesterday say that they are now being kept out of the way personally, seeing that the friends of the Susquehanna Road are determined to carry to war into the enemy's camp. The Commercial Advertiser says: "Prince Erie at all appearances, has some fear of being caught napping. The officers of the Erie are now being kept out of the way personally, seeing that the friends of the Susquehanna Road are determined to carry to war into the enemy's camp. COLORADO LABOR CONVENTION The national labor convention of colored men, which meets in Washington on Monday, the 28th of December, promises to be the largest in point of numbers, influence and intelligence of all similar bodies of colored men ever assembled in this country. Delegates have been elected from all the Southern and many of the Northern States. Among the delegates are General Clark of Texas, and a number of other white delegates. Female delegates have been elected from New York and Rhode Island. One of the things it will do is to establish an organization of trades unions and devise means for putting co-operative associations on a sound footing. The Hon. B. F. Butler will address the convention on the first and the Hon. Henry Wilson on the second day.

At a late meeting of the Managers of the Suffolk Temperance Union, resolutions were adopted looking to a more thorough enlistment of churches, congregations and Sunday schools in the promotion of the strictest temperance, and commending their Secretary, Dr. Chickering, to the care and confidence and co-operation of pastors and superintendents. That is a move in the right direction. When you get the churches and all religious organizations enlisted in the work of temperance, there will be no need of law.

The Teachers' Institute now being held throughout the State are doing much good in awakening our people to a deeper interest in the cause of education. Of all subjects that should receive attention in the people at large, this is the most deserving and yet there is none so much neglected. There are many reforms which need to be made in our school system. These reforms may be made instrumentally in perfecting it by influencing legislation to that end, besides the good they do directly in elevating the character of school teachers. They should be encouraged by all in the State.

THE REPUBLICAN SPIRIT IN VIRGINIA A Washington dispatch to the Advertiser says the political situation in Virginia is far from satisfactory. Governor Walker is thought to act in sympathy with the Democratic party, and is being gradually, in the opinion of General Canby, getting to the point of admission under the present constitution. The Democrats, however, represent the more sensible of the republican politicians, and will have the sympathy of the general commanding Governor Walker to day, apparently looking over the ground to see how the administration of the situation. General Canby was here yesterday and left here today for Richmond. Public men generally regard the division among republicans as a bad thing, and all at once the reputation of the whole concern seems to be discredited. It is half the charges brought against Fisk, Gould, and two or three others are true, the Erie Railroad has been a gigantic instrument of robbery and corruption ever since those gentlemen seized it. THE REVENUE OFFICE OF THE TERRITORY have sent in the assessment papers against Brigham Young's church property and they have been filed in the Internal Revenue Bureau at Washington. Brigham objects to paying taxes on the property and the case comes up there for adjudication. It involves several nice points of law and Commissioner Delano will probably refer the matter to Congress for legislative action.

In the Tennessee House of Representatives on Wednesday a bill providing for the allowing of negroes to sit in the galleries and on the floor of the House was introduced. It involves several nice points of law and Commissioner Delano will probably refer the matter to Congress for legislative action.

The Journal Clerk of the House of Representatives has just prepared a roll of all the members of the Forty-first Congress who have taken the oath of office. The list embraces exactly 200 names and does not include the names of Cleveland and the other members of the House of Representatives who have taken the oath of office.
